CHAIMELEON Privacy Policy

Accessing the CHAIMELEON Repository means that you accept the following privacy policy.

In accordance with the provisions of Organic Law 15/1999 of December 13, on the Protection of Personal Data (hereinafter, "LOPD"), in its implementing regulations, as well as in the new General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of April 27, 2016 (hereinafter RGPD), as well as with the provisions of Law 34/2002 of July 11, on Information Society Services and Electronic Commerce, we inform you that The personal data that users provide in the registration form of CHAIMELEON will be incorporated into a personal data file for which the person responsible is the Polytechnic University of Valencia, with address at Camino de Vera s/n, 46015 Valencia. The data incorporated into the file will be treated confidentially and with the level of protection required by current regulations, and their implementing regulations for the type of data requested in the forms.

All fields that appear in this form must be completed, so the omission of any of them may make it impossible for us to respond to your request, unless the form itself contains data that must be completed voluntarily.

By accepting this Privacy Policy, you accept its content and by checking the options that require your express consent, you grant it to us for the following purposes:

- Manage registration in the CHAIMELEON Dataset Service application and the correct identification of registered users who request access to this platform.
- Send them, by any means, information on the activities related to CHAIMELEON.
- Carrying out statistical studies of registered users that allow designing improvements in the services provided, without profiling.
- Carry out basic administration tasks and be able to communicate incidents, acts, events, results, or news to registered users.

Said data will be kept for the legally established periods.

As the owner of the personal data and information you provide us, you declare that they are accurate and truthful and undertake to notify us of any modification so that the information contained in our file is at all times updated and does not contain errors. In any case, we reserve the right to exclude any user who has provided false data, without prejudice to other actions that may be applicable by law.

At any time, and in accordance with the legally established procedures, you may exercise your rights of access, limitation of processing, rectification, deletion or opposition by means of a signed written request, with the indication "Data Protection", along with a copy of your ID. or equivalent document that identifies it addressed to: Ignacio Blanquer, Institute of Instrumentation for Molecular Imaging, Universitat Politècnica de València, with address at Camino de Vera s/n, 46015 Valencia, or by email addressed to iblanque@i3m.upv.es.
